Barristers & Alternative Dispute Resolution Practitioners

At LawConnexion, we believe that to achieve a successful practice, early identification of professional goals and practice concerns is of utmost importance.

Our service to our clients is holistic and is generally delivered in two stages. From the initial strategic analysis and planning, to strategy implementation, we offer personalised advice and professional support to our clients throughout the entire process.

We pride ourselves on our ability to understand our clients' specific needs and requirements, which can vary vastly from client to client. Creating a tailored strategic plan centered around their goals and objectives and working closely and collaboratively with each them to ensure that we continually adding value to their practices, is at the core of our service.

LawConnexion's core function is to add distinctive value to its clients' practices in the following ways.

- Identify opportunities to generate new lines of revenue.
- Provide a gateway for expanding professional networks and connections.
- Optimise existing client relationships.
- Create links to build strong relationships with prospective clients.
- Build a strong profile to increase industry exposure.
- Create a unique competitive advantage.
- Identify practice concerns and develop solutions.
- Devise and implement new practice management models.

LawConnexion's Principal and Founder, Nicole O'Hare, has a strong interest in litigation and alternative dispute resolution, on which her University Thesis was focused. She has had extensive experience practising as a solicitor in litigation, arbitration and mediation and has worked closely with barristers and alternative dispute resolution practitioners, of all levels, across various practice areas.

LawConnexion was founded 2013 to act as a valuable intermediary for the legal profession and since that time, we have successfully forged mutually beneficial relationships for our clients and their prospective clients, both domestically and internationally.
