

LAWCONNEXION

The Honourable Sir Laurence Street AC KCMG QC

(With respect to appearances at mediations)

I regard Nicole as an outstanding young lawyer. Nicole has high personal standards and is of unquestionable integrity both intellectually and personally. She has a warm, pleasing, happy disposition that makes her a pleasure to work with. A particular quality that has impressed me is her reliability and her tireless and selfless commitment to fulfill her professional obligation to her clients – often at the expense of her own personal life. She is, in short, a conscientious, accomplished lawyer with a personal disposition that marks her out for success.

The Honourable TRH Cole AO RFD QC

(With respect to a multi-million dollar arbitration)

Ms Nicole O'Hare has worked with me on a major Arbitration. When I agreed to undertake the Arbitration, a requirement was that I be given an efficient, knowledgeable and enthusiastic young lawyer who was prepared to work hard. Ms O'Hare was selected because she was thought to have those qualities. Her work with me has demonstrated that she has those qualities to the full.

She showed initiative in all tasks given to her, and was meticulous in her performance of them. She is a young lady of considerable intelligence with a sound legal background. She is personable and had no difficulty in discussions with partners in major firms. She shows an independence of mind which is commendable.

I am sure she will succeed in the areas which attract her interest. Were the opportunity to arise, I would have no hesitation in engaging Ms O'Hare to work with me again.
